

Castle Hill Church

Located in the centre of Castle Hill, Henley Rise and on the doorstep of Whitton, the Church was established in 1957.

The unique 'tent like' design and concrete construction is classified as Grade 2 Listed. The design of the building is not its only unique feature. The Church houses a rare 1930s cinema organ which is owned by the Ipswich Theatre Organ Club who hold regular concerts.

Castle Hill Church is an active Church with room for up to 160 people to attend regular Sunday Worship as well as a Sunday club for children.

Weekly Room Hire

During the week the Church has a variety of rooms available for hire that are suitable for meetings and social events including facilities for refreshments. The whole premises is wheelchair accessible and has a full fire alarm system.

A wide range of tables and chairs are available for use.

High speed fibre Wi-Fi is available throughout.

Ample car parking.
